

António Braz dos Santos Costa is a General Manager at CITEVE – Portuguese Technological Centre for Textile and Clothing Industries. CITEVE is a European reference institute that provides technological support and services to companies acting in the textile and clothing business. Product design and development, prototyping, testing and applied R&D oriented to innovative applications are included in its service portfolio that also includes consultancy, training and fashion intelligence. He leads the creation in 2003 and, since April 2012, is the CEO at CeNTI – Centre of Nanotechnology and Smart Materials. CeNTI, a research institute specialized in nanotechnology, functional materials, smart materials, printed electronics and additive technologies applied to several sectors, mainly developing solutions for Automotive & Aeronautics, Architecture & Construction and Health, Security & Wellbeing. At international level, he is President of Textranet, the European Network of Textile Research Organizations, Vice President of Textile ETP, European Technological Platform for the future of Textiles and Clothing. Between 2007 and 2015 Braz Costa was a President and Board Member at CEiiA – Centre of Excellence and Innovation for the Automotive and Aeronautics Industries, as well as leader of the Portuguese Mobility Cluster steering committee. Between 2005 and 2009, he was a Board Member at IAPMEI (Portuguese Public Agency for Competitiveness and Innovation) specialized in innovation areas.

